

Play Your Recorder Along with Vivaldi's Music!

Here is an excerpt from the Largo of Vivaldi's "Winter" concerto. Part I is Vivaldi's melody (for more advanced players), and Part II is an accompaniment (for beginner players). When you have learned one of these parts, try playing it with the recording at www.artsalive.ca/musicgames/. You can also sing along!

"Largo" theme from Winter (Four Seasons)

Soprano Recorder

for Recorder and Orchestra

A. Vivaldi

Words: Marcelline Moody

Largo $\text{♩} = 69$

I

Once, in the deep of the Win-ter, I heard a bird sweet-ly sing. A - mid the ice and snow, I listened. He sang of the prom-ise, the ma-gic, the pow-er that is the re-new-al of Spring. As he sang my heart took flight and was up-lift-ed. I was warmed as the snow a-round me drift-ed, And his song soft-ened Win-ter's sting.

II